

Angsana Resort & Spa - Palm Cove, Queensland

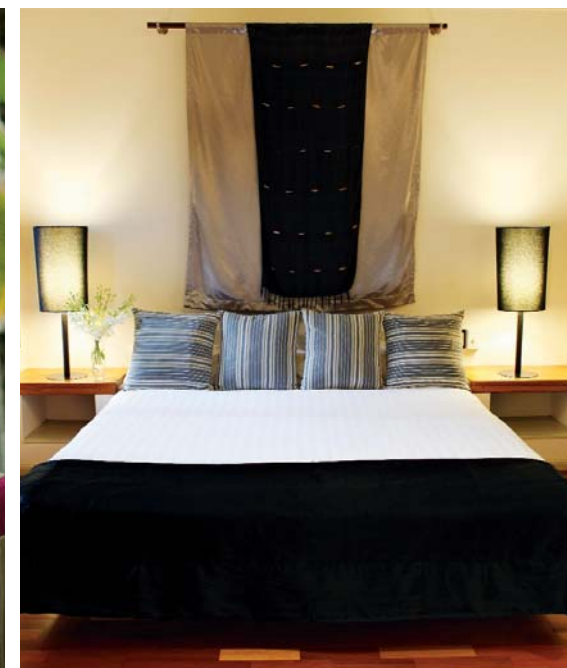

Angsana Resort & Spa is the only five star resort with absolute beach frontage in Palm Cove. The stunning resort offers award-winning suite accommodation where you can enjoy stunning ocean views at Far Horizons Restaurant, relax at one of three swimming pools or rejuvenate body, mind and spirit at the day spa.

Simple luxury awaits in tranquil Palm Cove where Angsana Resort & Spa's suites are just a matter of steps from the palm trees over the golden sand. For the adventurous, the exciting great outdoors await at the world's longest coral reef and rainforest - from white-water rafting and bungee jumping to reef excursions or rainforest trekking.

Far Horizons Restaurant is conducive to long lunches, sunset cocktails or a relaxed dinner. The only restaurant in Palm Cove set right on the beachfront, the menu leans towards modern Australian cuisine and features the finest local produce available. The extensive wine menu is unmatched in Far North Queensland and boasts boutique wines from all over the world, including 30 by the glass.

There is no better location than Angsana to pamper yourself with its heavenly body treatments, massages and facials. Using natural ingredients such as native flowers, fruits, herbs, spices, plants and the ancient art of aromatherapy, the award-winning and internationally recognised Angsana Spa combines the best of East and West to refresh and rejuvenate the tired body, mind and spirit.

Stay, relax, explore, indulge...the Angsana experience is about creating precious memories of special times.
