

Ca' Sagredo - Venice, Italy

A city of divine architecture and legendary history, Venice is a celebration of the romantic spirit. Distilling this essence to its purest form, combining old-world charm with the fascinating atmosphere of a magical city, the 15th century palazzo Ca' Sagredo is a national monument that will capture your heart.

Imagine the magnificence of an ancient noble residence combined with contemporary luxury, where you will discover the cultural richness of Venice while being treated to true Italian hospitality. The ballrooms and the rooms house works by Venetian painters of the 17th and 18th centuries, such as Sebastiano Ricci, Giambattista Tiepolo, Niccolò Bambini and Pietro Longhi.

Guests are sure to find a haven of comfort in the hotel's 42 rooms and suites with stunning views onto either the Grand Canal, Ca' D'Oro, Campo Santa Sofia or the Rialto Market. The exclusive environment of the suites has been created under the attentive supervision of The Fine Arts Institute of Venice: the stucco details, the sumptuous frescoes, the exquisite furnishing are the epitome of the classic Venetian style.

Treat yourself to a candlelight dinner at L'Alcova Restaurant as you watch the gorgeous sunset on the Grand Canal or sip a Bellini at the hotel's Bar L'Incontro.

There's really something very seductive in this palace. From its lavish pink façade and view over Venice to the art and history inside the hotel, Ca' Sagredo is perfect for romantic celebrations such as proposals, weddings and anniversaries.
