

Caesars Palace - Las Vegas, NV

Harrah's Entertainment offers the ultimate Las Vegas vacation through great properties, excellent service and unsurpassed variety. And now there are nine Las Vegas resorts to choose from including Caesars Palace, Planet Hollywood, PH Towers Westgate, Paris, Rio, Bally's, Flamingo, Harrah's and Imperial Palace.

Caesars Palace Las Vegas is famous worldwide for its magnificent beauty and impeccable service. This majestic Las Vegas property offers a 129,000 square foot casino, 26 restaurants and cafes, sprawling gardens and pools, and a world-class spa.

The highlight of all entertainment is right at your doorstep at The Colosseum, which features world-class performers like Cher, Jerry Seinfeld, and coming soon in 2011, Celine Dion makes her grand return. And don't miss Matt Goss. His new show offers a glimpse into his truly dynamic musical talent playing at The Gossy Room.

Just in time for summer, Caesars Palace opened the all-new Garden of the Gods Pool Oasis. Five acres of lush landscape, the blue waters of eight pools and an 18-foot waterfall that cascades into a pool designed exclusively for swim-up blackjack.

The accommodations at Caesars Palace, from the Forum Tower to the Penthouses, will surround you with modern convenience and luxury and make you feel like a whole empire is yours.

And as a unique feature to all Harrah's Entertainment properties, there are no resort fees. No additional charges upon check-in or check-out make Caesars Palace the perfect choice for your next Las Vegas vacation.
