

Capella - Singapore

Capella Singapore, a luxurious resort set on 12 lush hectares of rainforest just minutes from Singapore's financial and shopping district, offers spacious accommodation with 112 manors, villas and premier rooms. The resort's peaceful setting features a masterfully restored colonial building forming the centrepiece for its modern architecture and contemporary art surroundings.

Capella Singapore, the flagship property of Capella Hotels and Resorts in Asia, boasts an inspiring natural setting and the ultimate in personalised service to represent a new standard of luxury in Asia. Its design combines the best of old and new Singapore and personal assistants expertly attend to guests' needs from arrival to departure. Chauffeured Rolls-Royce Phantom services are also available.

The resort is set on a peaceful knoll and features traditional and modern architecture with views of the South China Sea. Capella offers some of the most spacious accommodation in Singapore, including premier guest rooms, suites, villas that feature private outdoor showers and bathtubs, and two colonial manors.

Guests can enjoy relaxation or business at fine dining Chinese restaurant Cassia, The Knolls all-day dining restaurant and Bob's Bar, an Auriga spa and a fitness centre, three meeting rooms, a business centre with two boardrooms, and three cascading outdoor pools.

Auriga spa's treatments draw inspiration from Singapore's Malay and Chinese heritage, with a focus on the rhythms of the lunar phases, and use 100% natural and organic products. Luxurious spa facilities include vitality pools that overlook a beautiful garden, invigorating herbal steam rooms, ice fountains and experience showers, and a relaxation lounge.
