

Dunalistair House - New Zealand

Dunalistair House is a finely appointed holiday home retreat within which to relax and enjoy the incredible central plateau region of New Zealand. Located close to Taupo and Rotorua, this unique property offers exclusive use for groups of up to eight guests wishing to explore this popular adventure destination.

As the only vacation rental property located at The Kinloch Club - a Jack Nicklaus Signature Course - Dunalistair House offers small groups of families, golfers, fishing parties or skiers the opportunity to stay in luxurious comfort with stunning vistas of this very unique part of New Zealand.

The five star Qualmark holiday home is contemporary in design, with a large open plan living area boasting uninterrupted views of the golf course, the rustic hills and a glimpse of the mighty Lake Taupo in the distance.

The four ensuite super kingsize bedrooms are so impressive that the house won the Supreme Home of the Year Award for New Zealand in 2009. Other features include a state of the art entertainment system and a fully equipped gourmet kitchen.

The owners at Dunalistair House - who are experienced travel consultants - enjoy assisting clients with leisure arrangements for the duration of their stay. From planning a four course degustation evening meal prepared and served by an executive chef to arranging a fishing excursion on a local trout-filled river, the experience at Dunalistair House is ultimately one of 'play by day' and 'delight by night'.
