

InterContinental Melbourne The Rialto - Melbourne, Victoria

InterContinental Melbourne The Rialto is a modern day monument of luxury that pays homage to its status as a heritage-listed building. The hotel is located a short stroll away from some of Melbourne's major attractions, galleries, theatres, renowned shopping areas and restaurants.

Located on legendary Collins Street in the heart of the Central Business District, InterContinental Melbourne The Rialto is one of the city's leading world-class hotels.

Just a few steps away is the vibrant Southbank, the Yarra River, the ever changing Docklands, leading tourist attractions, exclusive shops and boutiques and some of the best restaurants this cosmopolitan city has to offer. Completed in 1891, the Rialto is as grand today as it was back then.

The hotel's 253 exquisitely furnished guest rooms and suites are a perfect blend of elegance, luxury and comfort. Room features include Bose radio/alarm clocks, DVD/CD players and iPod docking stations in all rooms and suites.

Beyond your guestroom, discover the outstanding Alluvial Restaurant, Rialto Bluestone Bar and Market Lane Bar. The hotel's long list of world-class facilities include a 24 hour health and fitness centre featuring state-of-the-art weight and cardio equipment, indoor pool, spa and sauna. The hotel's East Day Spa offers authentic Eastern style massages and treatments in a peaceful and luxurious setting designed to restore your body, mind and soul.

Renovated in 2008, the InterContinental Melbourne The Rialto offers heritage and style in the heart of Melbourne.
