

Pacific Resort Aitutaki - Cook Islands

On a triangle-shaped atoll rising 4,000 metres from the floor of the Pacific Ocean sits an intimate collection of 27 secluded beachfront hideaways. This magical place in the South Pacific is home to Pacific Resort Aitutaki, named as the “World’s Leading Boutique Island Resort” at the World Travel Awards in 2008 and 2009.

Aitutaki’s seduction of its visitors begins on approach to the 19-acres of tropical forest with an amazing beachfront of pure white sand. It continues as you discover the world-famous lagoon and builds again as you reach your intimate hideaway, secluded amongst lush, palm-filled gardens.

Pacific Resort Aitutaki is limited to 27 luxurious beachfront bungalows, suites and villas. Whichever style you choose, you’ll enjoy your own panoramic view of Aitutaki’s western lagoon, where each sunset majestically colours the ocean.

If the tranquil island setting soothes your soul, the cuisine will fire up your palate. The Rapae Bay Restaurant features the very best in tantalising South Pacific dishes.

Take an invigorating trek to the highest point of the island or indulge in a Polynesian massage or beauty treatment at the resort’s tranquil spa complex.

Even when you return home from your idyllic trip, the seduction doesn’t stop, as you revisit your magical memories of Aitutaki. And you realise that this exclusive, romantic sanctuary will hold you in its spell forever.

Freecall Reservations: 1800 251 958

howtobook

Pacific Resort Aitutaki
 Aitutaki, Cook Islands, South Pacific
 Tel: +682 31720 Fax: +682 31719
 Web: www.pacificresort.com
 Email: aitutaki@pacificresort.com
 Contact: Greg Stanaway – CEO
 Airport: Aitutaki Airport – a 40 minute flight from Rarotonga International Airport, the only international centre for arrivals into the Cook Islands

